146384-107

Royal Academy of Music Library

244

The Willow Song
Sung by Mrs Jordan
"and accompanied by herself on the Lute"
c.1798 (Wmk 1798)
BUC 503

245.

Royal Academy of Music Library

2

THE WILLOW,

A Favorite Air,

Sung with unbounded Applause at the Theatre Royal Drury Lane, by

Mrs. JORDAN.

and Accompanied by herself on the Lute,

Composed by Mr. Hook.

Entd. at Stats. Hall. Pr. 1s.

LONDON.

Printed for J. DALE, No. 19, Cornhill, opposite the Royal Exchange, The corner of Holles Street, Oxford Street, & No. 151 New Bond Street.

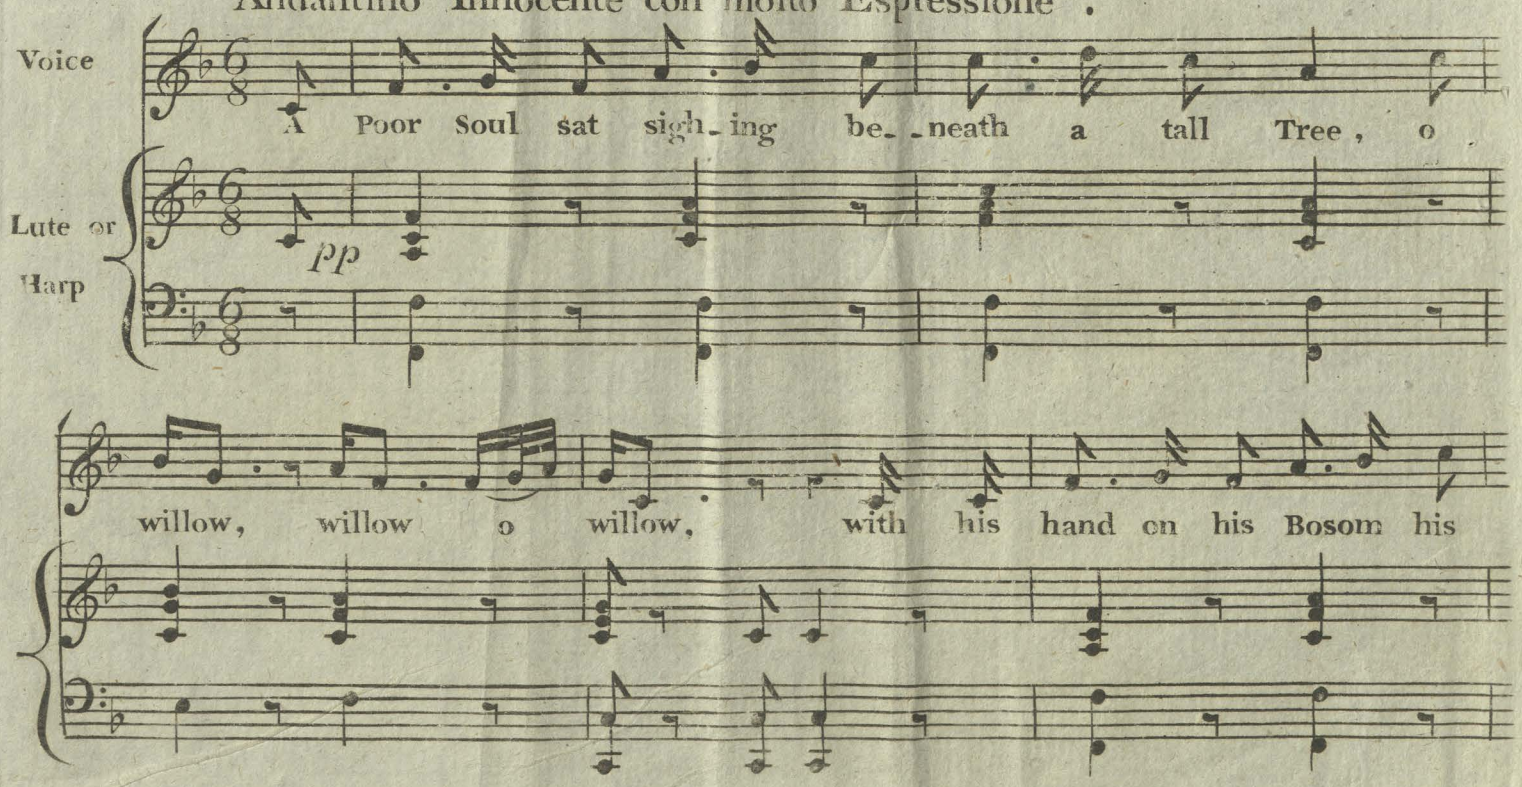
— where may be had Just Published —

s

Poor Little Bess 1

L'Année consisting of a Song for every Month in the Year 3

Andantino Innocente con molto Espressione .



246

Royal Academy of Music Library

head on his knee, o willow, willow o willow, Sing

o the green willow, sing o the green willow, the wil- low shall be a Espressivo.

gar- land for me, sing o the green wil- - low.

2

He sigh'd in his singing, and after each groan,
O willow, willow, o willow,
I'm dead to all pleasure, my true love is gone.
O willow, willow, o willow,
Sing o the green willow &c.

3

Let nobody blame me, her scorn I thus prove,
O willow, willow, o willow,
She was born to be fair, I to die for her love,
O willow, willow, o willow,
Sing o the green willow &c.

247

Royal Academy of Music Library